MEMPHIS GIRL TO BE SOLOIST WITH MINNEAPOLIS ORCHESTRA

LAVERNE DE SHAZO

Mere announcement of the fact that the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Emil Oberhoffer, will play in Memphis is sufficient to awaken enthusiastic interest among for the second attraction of its course for the season of 1919-20. Holders of membership tickets will be privileged to attend one without cost.

This orchestra has been here several times and its merits are fully appreciated, being regarded by many as the peer of any which has ever played to a local audience. It's fame grows with its age, for its career is closely interwoven about its wonderful director, who is recognized as a gentus for organization and training, as well as for inspiring those with him.

Of special note in connection with this engagement will be the appearance of Laverne De Shaze, a local girl, as piaho soloist at the evening concert. She made her professional debut early in the fall and has wonderful talent, attested by the fact that this orchestra consents to have her as a soloist. She will play a Grieg concerto. The solosist at the matinee will be Henry J. Williams, a Welsh harpist.
